STOCK SALES .- Messrs. Lowndes & Grimball. sold vesterday at auction, $6500 of Cheraw and Darlington First Mortgage Bonds at 82a821; - shares of the Bank of Georgia Stock at one dollar per share.

SUDDEN DEATH, -Romas Perry, an old col ored man in the employ of Mr. Olney, died very suddenly of old age vesterday in the vi- instant. cinity of the Savannah Railroad depot. He was one of the faithful few who did not desert their masters when "the Union came in."

THE REPAIRS TO THE COURTHOUSE .- The County Commissioners are engaged in putting the Courthouse in a thorough state of repair. They have already completed some internal changes, such as running the judge's desk to him from the noise of the street and passing vehicles, and painting and graining the interior of the building generally. The jurymen, we seats. The whole aspect of the place has been of the Widows' Home.

REAL ESTATE SALES IN COLUMBIA. - Messrs. Peixotte & Son, on Monday, sold one lot, with building, on the corner of Richardson and Blanding-streets, for $4700; vacant lot in rear of the above, $1000; house and lot on Richlandstreet, (haif acre,) $700; vacant lot on Richland street, (half acre,) $1150; twelve acres in Sand Hills, three miles from city, $275; vacant lot on Laurel-street, $500; vacant lot on Sumterstreet, $475; vacant lot on Upper Boundarystreet, $700; also a large amount of property sold for State and city taxes.

THE DROUTH.—There has been no rain of any consequence in the neighborhood of Charleston since March 17, and during a period of nearly three months enough rain has not fallen to penetrate the soil to a depth of more than two inches. So long a drouth at this season of the year has no parallel, we believe. in the memory of our oldest citizens. All the farms near the city are suffering greatly, and nearly every cistern in the city is dry. Water is in active demand, and a good description commands fancy prices-in gratitude and thanks. .

DECLARATION OF HOSTILITIES-A NOTHER RAILEOAD WAR. - The Augusta Constitution aliet, of justiceday, says. "Youterday much ing the necessary papers were sued out before Justice Ells, by a portion of the property holders on Washington-street, looking to an abate ment of the privilege enjoyed by the South Carolina Railroad of using steam power on Mayor, who stated with emphasis that said street, as a public nuisance and injury to | meeting stands adjourned." property. This movement is made in conform ity to Irwin's Code, providing for the abatement of a public nuisance by verdict of twel re freeholders before two justices of the peace. The issue will be heard on Friday morning, at 10 o'clock, at the city court room.

THE STATE COURT, HON. R. B. CARPENTER PRESIDING-IN THE GENERAL SESSIONS .- The court met at 9 o'clock. Attachments were issued against witnesses in a number of cases. The following cases were disposed of : The State vs. John Hains. On motion of Colonel Phillips, counsel for the defence, the case was ordered to be dismissed. The State vs. Henry Vangerhorst-Malicious trespass. Found guilty, but recommended to The State vs. Edward Martin-Malicious tres pass. Not guilty. The State vs. B. Conly -Assault and battery

Not guilty. The State vs. H. Laurens-Assault and bat tery. R. W. Seymour, Esq., for the detence Quilty.

In the case of the State vs. E. W. M. Mackey. indictment for official misconduct, a nol. pros was entered on account of a misnomer, and a new indictment handed to the Grand Jury.

THE UNITED STATES COURT, JUNE 8 .- HON GEO. S. BRYAN, PRESEDING. Law Docket .-Macauley & Co., citizens of New York vs Isaac E. Hertz, of South Carolina. Assump sit. Campbell & Sesbrook for plaintiff. Por ter & Conner for defendant.

Jury No. 1 charged with this case, rendered the following verdict: We find for the plaintiff. Three thousand, five hundred and eighty dollars.

WM. RAVEMEL, Foreman.

The Union Stove Works of New York vs. Archibaid M. Jackson, of South Carolina. Assumpsit. T. J. Bell for plaintiff. Wilson & Witherspoon for defend in t.

Under rule 16, and by the consent of counsel, I assess the damages at two thousand dollars and costs of anit.

G. S. BRYAN, D J. U. S. In Bankruptcy .- A. H. Abrahams was approved of as an assignee of Charles Madsen. Sample Alexander was flually discharged in bankruptcy. Sundry petitions for final discharge and to set up leins were referred.

THE EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT .- GOVERNOR Scott has appointed Willis Waters Magistrate for Marion County; Thomas E. Dailey, of Marlboro'; G. B. Montgomery, of Chester; Franklin W. Fairy. of Orangeburg, and Wm. H. Porter, of Charleston, Notaries Public; and Charles Hubbard, of Newbern N. C., a Commissioner of South Carolina for that State. The Columbia Phonix of yesterday says:

The Columbia Phoenix of yesterday says:

The terms of imprisonment of the following named convicts in the penitentiary being about to expire as a reward of their good conduct during their imprisonment, as reported by the superintendent, and as an inducement to other prisoners to follow their example, the Governor has remitted the remaining portion of their several sentences, and has ordered their discharge from imprisonment, in order that they may retain their civil rights, and thus have an opportunity of redeeming their character, and regaining the respect of their fellow-citizens, viz: Dick Thompson, Frank Pierce, Casseton Brown Wesley Reeves, Brister Pigals, Hebderson, Simpson, Samel Gordon, Ralph Backstram, Cato Bagwelf, Albert Kew, James Regers, Recough Waddington, John P. Willis, Jack Hinson, James Henry and David Harrison, DISTRESSING ACCIDENT.—Yesterday foren while Washington, a little son of Colonel Wm. Whaley, was at play with some companions in the second story piazza of his father's residence, he attempted to clamber outside of the balustrade, but lost his hold and fell into the garden below, a distance of more than twenty feet. The unfortunate child was rendered in sensible for several hours by the force of the fall, and last evening his condition was regarded as very precarious.

REPORTERS' CRUMBS .- Travel North now is ery brisk.

A school for colored velocipedists has been pened in John-street. It was reported in the city yesterday that the caterpillar had appeared in the vicinity of Ashepoo. Policemen under instructions of the Health department, are now engaged inspecting private yards throughout the city.

The agent of the New Orleans circus (said to be a mammoth concern,) reached the city yesterday. The canvas will be spread on the 23d

The German Rifle Club think of baving another one day Schuetzenfest in the latter part of this month, to dispose of the prizes left over from the May festival.

State of South Carolina bonds, issued to redeem notes of the Bank of the State, sold yesterday a: 78 c., with an upward tendency. The CXXI anniversary meeting of the Charleston Library Society was held at the to the rear of the court room, thereby saving Library yesterday. The only business transacted was the re-election of the officers.

Four gentlemen who served as jurymen in a case in Magistrate Bunch's office, yesterday, notice, have been supplied with cushioned have sent THE NEWS their fees for the benefit

It is said that the two most belligerent Alder men of the rival municipal rings have "buried the hatchet."

THE CITY COUNCIL.-The meeting of Council, which was to have been held last evening was, like previous meetings, adjourned for want of a quorum.

The Mayor, as has been bis wont, entered the Chamber at a quarter-past 8 o'clock, whereupon Alderman T. J. Mackey requested the clerk to call the roll. The following were found present: The Mayor; Aldermen T. J. Mackey, E. W. M. Mackey, Barrow, Greene, and E. P.

Wall, L. F. Wall and Thorne, colored. Alderman E. W. M. Mackey moved to adjourn uatil next Tuesday evening. The Mayor said the motion to adjourn to fixed date was not in order. E. P. Wall, colored. A minority can adjourn o any fixed time.

The Mayor. The chair has already ruled the motion out of order. Alderman T. J. Mackey proposed to show, by parliamentary law, that the motion was in or der and could be entertained.

E. P. Wall, colored. Will the chair hear as appeal from its decision? Mayor (sternly.) No! No appeal.

E. P. Wall, colored. I call the previous ques adjourn on next Tuesday evening. [Great laughter.]

Alderman T. J. Mackey submitted that the motion was not against parliamentary law, and he could prove it; but he was out short by the

The presiding officer then retired from the scene, while the discomfitted Aldermen resolved themselves into an informal and angry indignation meeting.

WHAT BRICK POMEROY DID WRITE AND WHAT HE DID NOT WRITE. Eight o'clock, and he is not here yet! How dreary this little room does seem, and I am so lonesome! Ten o'clock. How I wish he would come It is so lonely here with the children asieen! Once he loved to stay with me, but now, alas! Twelve o'clock, and I am so tired, I cannot sleep! My beart aches and grows sad. I am growing old, perhaps. May be my face is not as fair as once, but my heart is as warm, though it is often sad.

ARE YOU DYSPEPTIC. Nervous, jaundiced, low spirited, weak, or are you sick and don't know what ails you; then try Planta tion Bitters and our word for it, it will cure you.

ONE O'CLOCK. What charms can he find in that foul-scented room, by that dusty table, cutting and dealing those dusty cards, filling himself with poison, tainting his reath, ruining his mind, undermining his constitu tion, planting sreds of disease, squindering his money, clouded with smoke, tired with excitement. Is this happiness? is this life? Is this our mission PLANTATION BITTERS. This delicious cordial and fine tonic is now hailed by thousands as the great health giver and restorer. Resolve to buy a bottle, and don't sleep on it. Be wise in time. Sold by all druggists.

Oh! I am so tired, do come home.

"No darling, I have labored enough to-day. Why hould I flee from home, from happiness, from thee Life is full short to love-too short to squander. love the photograph of my leart too well. No dar ling, my heart is here; here let me keep it company.

PLANTATION BITTERS

Are always pure, reliable. They are strengthening and invigorating, and are Exhausted Nature's great restorer. As an agreeable and pleasant tonic and

"DO YOU GO DOWN TOWN TO-NIGHT, MY PET?"

appetizer, they cannot be excelled. THEY WHO ARE RICH, Are they who mind their own business. Find a har py man or woman, and the affairs of another trouble hem but a little. It is none of your business if the minister kisses one of the sisters, or one of the sis ters thus salutes the minister. It cannot effect you when a man you know calls on a girl you don't know, or one you do. What if there is kissing behind the door, in tunnels, and when the night is dark at th vestibule of the hurch, or even ever the gate. Would you not do the same thing if the chance was offered?

A WINE GLASS FULL Of Plantation Bitters, taken three times a day, before each meal, will make the flame of life again burn brightly, and illuminate a once wretched existence For ladies it is an elegant and gentle stimulant, just such as they require.

"I WENT TO THE LAND OF STEADY HABITS." I wanted to hand several "bricks" down to pos terity, and was told by father that with a New Eng and girl tor a wife, I could raise more children, grow more onions, sain more cels, sing more psalms know more of what was going on in the neighbor hood, hear more soundal, sleep less nights, have more relatives, eat more beans, love myself and hate others more, and get more out of a dollar, than any other sort of woman in this happy country so-called

They are sold by all druggists AND HE HAD A FEMALE CHILD, Whose name was Hexa Brightwater, and who was twenty-nine years old; who wore red stockings, red garters, metal tipped shoes, green spectacles, and the prettiest red hair the world ever seceyes on or into. Hexa, a true New England gal, chewed wads of pine gum. and sweetened her broth with onions. Hexa wasn't so much bandsomer than a doll as to make the doll faint, but she was intelligent; in fact, in-VALTER, MY BOY, Here comes a man who was once rich. He had friends, and money, and a loving family, and position, and influence, and self-respect, and integrity, and a future of usefulness before him. But, my boy, he don't look like it now. He was elected to an important office. He forgot the lessons his good mother taught him, and was asked by designing politi lans to sall his vote to a party of swindlers; he could not for the life of him give articulation to that utile word, and so he fell.

HOW OFTEN DO WE HEAR THE COMPLAINT. from mother and friher, that the son or daughter is not we.l; that they have no appetite; that they feel are growing thin and feeble, and that they have no life nor energy lett. And the questions are often asked, What shall I do for them? What shall I give them? Our answer is, let them try Plantation Bitters moderately, three times a day, and our word for it they will recover.

AND HERE VALTER. IS A TOUNG MAN, Just like you and us, my boy. He has wit, sense education, intelligence, friends, ambition, and is lovee. He has a knowledge of the world, sequired by mixing with its people. He has amotion and the same fie d in which to win honor, fame and dis tinction, as had Franklin, Fulton. Morse, and a host of others. He is naturally smart, but, Valter, my of others. He is naturally smart, but, Vaiter, my by, as he meets us do you see the excess of meets true in his eye, the hitie puffy ridge under it the greenal turning of the beautiful corners of the mouth his mother so loved to kies. Those, my boy, talk and inle of easily shipwreek, of discent, of premiser of the minure death, of neglected and agrandance gifts.
